Notice of Privacy Practices

Effective Date: August 1, 2011

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

The health insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1966 (HIPAA) is a federal program that requires all medical records and other individually identifiable health information used or disclosed by us in any form, whether electronically, on paper, or orally, are kept properly confidential. This act gives you, the patient, significant new rights to understand and control how your health information is used. HIPAA provides penalties for covered entities that misuse personal health information.

As required by HIPAA, we have prepared this explanation of how we are required to maintain the privacy of your health information and how we may use and disclose your health information.

A. How the Practice May Use or Disclose Your Health Information

We may use and disclose your medical records only for each of the following purposes: Treatment, Payment, and Health Care Operations.

- TREATMENT means providing, coordinating, or managing health care and related services by one or more health care providers. An example of this would include performing diagnostic tests in our office.
- PAYMENT means such activities as obtaining reimbursement for services, confirming coverage, billing or collection activities, and utilization review. An example of this would be sending a bill for your visit to your insurance company for payment.
- HEALTH CARE OPERATIONS include the business aspects of running the practice, such as conducting quality assessment and improvement activities, auditing functions, cost-management analysis, and customer service. An example would be an internal quality assessment review.

We may also create and distribute de-identified health information by removing all references to individually identifiable information.

We may contact you to provide appointment reminders or information about treatment alternatives or other health related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

There are times we may be required by law to disclose information for law enforcement or public health reasons without additional authorization from the patient.

B. When the Practice May Not Use or Disclose Your Health Information

Except as described in this Notice of Privacy Practices, the practice will not use or disclose health information which identifies you without your written authorization. If you do authorize the practice to use or disclose your health information for another purpose, you may revoke your authorization in writing at any time. We are required to honor and abide by that written request, except to the extent that we have already taken actions relying on your authorization.

C. Your Health Information Rights

You have the following rights with respect to your protected health information (PHI), which you can exercise by presenting a written request to the Privacy Officer using Practice forms:

-The right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of PHI, including those related to disclosures to family members, other relatives, close personal friends or any other person identified by you. We are, however, not required to agree to a requested restriction. If we do agree to a restriction, we must abide by it unless you agree in writing to remove it.

-The right to reasonable requests to receive confidential communications of PHI from us by alternative means or at alternative locations.

-The right to inspect and copy your PHI.

-The right to amend your PHI.

-The right to obtain a paper copy of this notice from us upon request.

We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your PHI and to provide you with the notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to PHI.

D. Changes to this Notice of Privacy Practices

We reserve the right to change the terms of our Notice of Privacy Practices and to make the new notice provisions effective for all PHI that we maintain. We will post and you may request a written copy of a revised Notice of Privacy Practices from the Practice.

E. Complaints

If you believe there has been a problem with our collection, use, or disclosure of your PHI, you have the right to file a complaint with our Privacy Officer. If we do not respond to your complaint in a satisfactory manner, you may file a complaint with the U.S. Office of Civil Rights. We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.
